CAMPBELL, SANTA CLARA COUNTY, CALIFORNIA.

FRIDAY, MAY 4, 1928

The sessions of the American Institute of Cooperation, which meets in July at the University of California, Berkeley, will be open to all interested in the cooperative selling of farm products, it is announced. The Institute will meet first at Los Angeles, July 9, for a week's field trip to study California cooperatives, and then will have three weeks sessions at the University.

The members of the California Grape Growers' Exchange in the vicinity of Roseville meet soon in the library clubroom in Roseville. The growers are expected to make a selection of a label to be placed on all boxes of grapes shipped from Roseville during the coming season. At the last meeting of the growers a committee composed of G. D. Kay, T. A. Crowder, William Cobb, T. Riolo and Delbert Bailey was chosen to select a label for the district. The committee's choice will be presented to the growers for their approval at the next meeting.

Contrary to previous predictions that the Arbutus, Colusa county, almond crop would surpass that of past years, a new survey of the orchards at Arbutus show that the 1928 crop will be about 2,400,000 pounds, or approximately the same as last year. Damp weather during the pollinating period is accountable for the light crop in several varieties, including the nonpareil and drakes. With the prices remaining stable, even this light crop will bring approximately half a million dollars to the growers of this section. The grain crop, too, will not be what was earlier expected.

The rains delayed the asparagus canning operations, now under way. Canners are grading very carefully this season, but it is anticipated that the pack, which should be completed about the middle of June, will equal last year's large total of 2,189,570 cases. The growth of asparagus was below that of last season, due to the damaging effect of the heavy rainfall. Spinach packing is almost completed and it is estimated that the pack will run slightly under that of 1927 when 1,968,668 cases were produced. Canning spinach is in excellent demand, and there is but little carry over from last year; the indications are that this season's pack will be quickly sold.

Generous rains, statewide, late in March relieved an agricultural situation that was becoming acute, according to the Wells Fargo Bank and Union Trust Company. Forage crops, truck crops, grains and fruits were all more or less benefited by the greatly needed precipitation, and while there was some damage from the heavy rains and river floods, the agricultural and horticultural status of California is now in a greatly improved position. Total precipitation for the season is almost up to normal in most sections of the state; snow in the mountains is at a fair level and the water supply in storage is 85 per cent of normal compared with an average of 55 per cent at this date.

California's grape industry is confronted with a serious problem of disposing of an annual tonnage much in excess of the present capacity of the market to absorb at profitable prices, according to the conclusions reached in a report entitled "Marketing California Grapes," recently completed on behalf of the California Vineyardists Association by the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company, the University of California and the State and Federal Departments of Agriculture. The report recommends, however, that a solution of the growers' problem be attempted by a concerted program of market expansion and improved methods of distribution, rather than by liquidation. Grape acreage, it is pointed out, has increased from 200,000 in 1919, to 700,000 in 1927; production from 1,000,000 tons to 2,400,000.

Machinery for estimating the size of California's prospective peach crop was set in motion in San Francisco a few days ago. Meeting with State Director of Agriculture George H. Hecke members of a committee appointed for the purpose by Governor Young laid plans for surveying practically every peach orchard in the State. The object of the survey is to determine the tonnage of the expected crop so that conference groups may estimate how much of it is marketable, and how the market for it may be stimulated.

Golden State

News of Interest to All

Dates and itinerary of the thirty-ninth annual excursion of the California Press Association were announced a few days ago by Friend W. Richardson, president, and Oran A. King, secretary. The jaunt this year will include in visits to Crater Lake, Rogue River Valley and Klamath Falls, Oregon. The excursionists will leave San Francisco Sunday, June 24, in special Pullmans, on the Southern Pacific.

Either Californians are drinking more intoxicating liquor than at any time since prohibition or the quality of "speak easy" beverages is constantly getting poorer. Whichever it is, 190 California residents died of acute alcoholism during the last year, according to reports thus far received by the department of public health, as compared with only 37 in 1920, the first year of prohibition. And the bootleggers' death toll from 1920 to 1927, inclusive is 1006.

The state railroad commission last week refused to reconsider its recent action in fixing the local rates of the Pacific Electric Company in Los Angeles. The city had asked for a rehearing of the commission's actions. The commission also denied the railway company's petition for a rehearing of its application for an increase from 5 to 7 cents in its local fares. As a result of the commission's action the new rates went into effect April 27th. Denial of the city's petition removes the last obstacle.

I. Zellerbach, president of the California Fish and Game Commission, will present California's problems and accomplishments in conservation of outdoor life at the annual convention of the Izaak Walton League of America in Omaha April 20, it has been announced at Sacramento by Jacob M. Dickinson, president of the organization.

Now that the rainy season is nearly over in California and the season of the forest fire is about to begin the National Automobile Club has sent out a warning to its more than 611,800 members that care must be taken to prevent fires when entering any of the United States forests in the state. In a bulletin issued by the club it is pointed out that most of the forest fires in the state are caused by either the careless camper or the equally careless smoker. The club members are cautioned to remember that heavy penalties are imposed by the courts for infractions of rules governing camping and motoring in the national forests.

Within the next few weeks California will be in the midst of her greatest road-building era. In addition to several hundreds of thousands of dollars of work which is now actually under contract, other highway projects to cost $5,470,1100 are now being prepared for competitive bidding or will soon be let. Contracts for $11,349,000 in work are now pending. Bids upon these projects have been opened and contract awards are expected to be made within the next few days. In addition, work now advertised stands in the amount of $972,100. Plans and specifications have been prepared upon $442,000 in other work and will be ready for contractors' bids within the next couple of weeks.

California's "hesitation" marriage law is a thorn in the side of both Cupid and the county treasurers. Drawing this conclusion about the statute, Assemblyman A. J. Murphy, representing Del Norte and Siskiyou counties, declared last week that he will work for its repeal in the legislature this winter. "The three day wait before issuance of a marriage license is reducing the number of marriages all over California," Murphy asserted. "Couples are eloping to adjoining states to be married and California county governments are losing the license fees. With Oregon only a few miles away, this is particularly true of our northern cities."

An increase of $39,019,903 in the bonded indebtedness of California and its cities and counties during the fiscal year ended June 30, 1927, was reported last week by State Controller Ray L. Riley. The total indebtedness of the three governmental divisions was $711,186,104.09, compared with $672,166,200.22 the preceding year. More than $20,000,000 of the increase was recorded by cities, $14,171,010 by the counties and only $4,458,000 by the state. The city bonded debt total last year stood at $3329,844,041.04, as against $309,453,146.44 the preceding year. The county total was $276,533,563, as compared with $262,362,553 a year earlier, while the state total jumped from $100,350,500 to $104,808,500. Receipts from taxes increased 342 per cent during the period since 1911, with receipts from licenses increasing only 92 per cent.

ALL SET FOR OPERETTA TONIGHT

Rolling romance of the Old South will be pictured and sung at the auditorium of Campbell Grammar School this evening by the music department of Campbell Union High School in their offering for this year. "In Old Louisiana," a musical comedy, under the direction of Miss Marian Jenkins, the cast and chorus of 80 have been working for several weeks on this splendid musical production. They have caught the spirit of life on the banks of the Mississippi 75 years ago and are prepared to offer it to us in their costumes of the period and their frolicksome melodies, which weave a romance of mystery and intrigue frustrated by love. The spirit of knighthood lives in gallant Richard St. John (Stephen Merrill) who surrenders his dueling privileges rather than take the life of his adversary, who has plotted to prove Rose (Annette), Richard's sweetheart, to be the daughter of an octoroon slave. The colored servants of the Sansouci plantation where Rose lives with her foster father, Pilot Farley provide numerous comedy scenes and there is a love affair running through the opera between Richard's sister (Opal Overshiner) and Monty Gray (Jack Murdock). Of course all end happily when Marquis de la Tour (Bruce Cooper) arrives and proves Rose to be his grand daughter and not the daughter of an octoroon slave.

The cast of principals follows:
In order of appearance
Old Ned, a colored servant Elmer Sundquist
Rose, Pilot Farley's adopted daughter Annette Merrill
Richard St. John, a young sugar planter Stephen Merrill
Simon Scudder, Pilot Farley's overseer Mervyn Nichols
Holly Timms, a shady lawyer from New Orleans Glenn Willis
Jack Martin, a friend of Scudder from New Orleans Kenneth Beer
Martha St. John, Richard's sister Opal Overshiner
Monty Gray, a friend of Richard from the North Jack Murdock Pilot Robert Farley, pilot on the good steamer "Eclipse," owner of the Sansouci sugar plantation Richard Lyndon Judy, Old Ned's wife and the best cook in Louisiana Myrtle Lester
Marquis de la Tour, of Bordeaux, France Bruce Cooper
Bruce MacDougal, the County Sheriff Art Downing

HOOVER GIVEN HEAVY LOCAL VOTE

The Presidential primary in Campbell as well as county and State gave a tremendous complimentary vote for Herbert Hoover considering the lack of a contest. Campbell gave him 287.

In the Democratic ranks the struggle for votes was a keen one. Walsh with 11 trailed Smith 19, and Reed 30. Prohibition voted 11.

Brooks-Ripsey

Miss Mary Brooks, daughter of Mrs. H. E. Clouser and Mr. Morris Ripsey were married last Thursday at the Santa Cruz Presbyterian Manse. Mrs. Clouser and Mrs. F. O. Bohnett were present to witness the ceremony.

Mrs. Ripsey came to Campbell with her mother, when the Clouser family returned here a few years ago and had attended the State Teachers' College.

The groom is connected with the Redwine Garage in Mountain View, where the young people are already getting settled in their new home.

Miss Evelyn Roe, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Roe, and Ted Smith of San Tomas road were quietly married recently, surprising their friends.

CAMPBELL CLUB HOST TO DISTRICT

The Country Woman's Club had the pleasure Friday of being host to the County Federation of Women's Clubs which met in an all day session in the Community Room.

Mrs. C. W. Sutter and Mrs. E. I. Price were responsible for the extremely lovely flower decorations, which were the subject of complimentary discussions on all sides. The same was equally true of the parlors of the Congregational Church which the ladies of the Guild had arranged for the very lovely luncheon which they served.

Both morning and afternoon meetings were full of interesting reports and discussions. These included accounts of the recent district federation convention in San Francisco, of the Institute of International Relations held in Berkeley in March and a talk on the early history of Santa Clara county by the chairman of history and landmarks.

Miss Annette and Stephen Merrill sang a group of songs from the operetta to be presented this evening.

The May meeting will be a "pilgrimage" to some of the historic spots in and about Gilroy, when the Gilroy Woman's Club and the Watsonville Woman's Club will be hosts and pilots.

MISS MATTESON FOOTLIGHT FAVORITE

Miss Ruth Matteson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Matteson of Los Gatos highway is one of the most popular stars of the Cole-McAllister Stock Company which opened at the American Theater Sunday in "The Family Upstairs."

Miss Matteson attended Campbell Grammar School and the Campbell Union High School and was a music pupil of Mrs. Emily Pannell Gard. She was a very popular in school on account of her musical and dramatic ability and her sweet personality. She was very willing to lend her talents to programs of various groups and organizations here who enjoyed her sweet voice.

For some time she has devoted herself to dramatics and made her debut a few months ago at Marysville.

As usual San Jose has appropriated to itself this young lady as it has a habit of doing with all who come within its borders, but Campbell has a much longer and stronger claim as this is really her "own home town," and her wide circle of friends and acquaintances here are happy over her present achievements and hope for her a much higher place in the theatrical world.

DR. MERRILL BETTER

The community was very much grieved Saturday morning when word was passed about that Dr. W. I. Merrill was taken seriously ill in the night and was in a critical condition. Dr. F. R. Anderson and two outside physicians were summoned and after consultation treated the patient. Since Sunday he has been slowly but steadily improving and his many friends are pleased to note that he was able to sit up for a time yesterday. More power to him is the wish of all his host of friends who have been showering him with flowers and plants this week.

Last Thursday afternoon Mrs. Anna Sawyer and Mrs. Lucy Smith entertained at the former's home. The rooms were attractively decorated with quantities of beautiful roses.

Whist was the diversion of the afternoon followed by a service of dainty refreshments.

COUNTY CONSOLIDATED CHAMBER PLANS HECKER PASS OPENING MAY 27

According to the elaborate plans told the members of Santa Clara County Consolidated at their monthly meeting held in Morgan Hill Tuesday by Justin W. Byers of Gilroy, the celebration of the opening of the new

"Hecker Pass of Yosemite-to-the-Sea Highway," formerly the Bodfish Mill Road, will take place at the top of the mountain on Sunday, May 27. Many State and county officials are to be present. The Presidio Cavalry band is to be there, and several other events are to take place on the program. Several magazines, including "Motorland," all newspapers, and many radio stations have given publicity to this event and it is expected that thousands of people will attend this important celebration in this county.

Max Crow, vice-president and of Gilroy, acted as chairman in the absence of Wendell Thomas, who was called away owing to the sudden death of his mother on Monday. Judge T. H. Miller, president from the Morgan Hill Chamber of Commerce welcomed the county boosters to the meeting, which was held on Nob Hill near Morgan Hill, saying that he "hope you come often to Morgan Hill." The site of the luncheon afforded a most beautiful view of the southern section of the valley and was enjoyed by all.

A resolution of sympathy to Mr. Thomas was passed by the group. Russell Pettit, as secretary in the absence of Miss Bernice Downing, read a letter from Ray Smith of Palo Alto saying that he was resigning from the secretaryship of the chamber of his city on Monday and hoped that they would visit him at his new office with the San Francisco Community Chest.

Chairman Harry Smith of Campbell on the committee to investigate the possibility of changing the name of the Santa Clara river basin valley to another name, made a thorough report saying that he had interviewed several State officials. Senator Herbert Jones said that "There was no question but that the ambiguity of these names can be removed." He suggested the introduction of two bills in the next session of the Legislature, based on the laws providing that "the name of a county cannot be used as the name of any portion of another county" and the one "that concerns one section's right to the priority of a name's establishment." The committee was asked to go into the matter further.

After furnishing the guests with samples of Aunt Jo's Prune Delights, which all enjoyed, Alfred Gabrielson, sales manager of the county's newest industry, chocolate-coated prunes, told of the great possibilities of marketing our prunes in a more attractive manner.

Raymond Moulin of San Francisco outlined a plan for taking several fine photographs of this region at a very reasonable cost for publication in "Pictorial California" and several rotogravure sections of newspapers throughout the country. The matter is to be considered further at the next meeting.

Supervisor Henry Hecker of Gilroy and Supervisor C. P. Cooley of Palo Alto, and Robert Chandler were special guests of Consolidated and each remarked how pleased they were to be present.

The next meeting of the organization will be held in San Jose June 5.

Those present were: T. H. Miller, R. T. Liston, A. Mattson, W. L. Whidden, C. R. Nelson, C. F. Drewry, Harry Skeels, A. E. Pfenner, O. R. Prien, J. H. Walker, George Henckenand, R. T. Henken and Clive M. Saiz of Morgan Hill; Henry Hecker, Frank C. Staniford, Justin W. Byers, and Max J. Crow of Gilroy; Robert B. Chandler, W. E. Miller, Alfred Gabrielson and Russell Pettit of San Jose; Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Wilkinson of Saratoga; S. P. Cooley of Palo Alto; Jack Gregory of Los Altos; Harry Smith of Campbell, and Raymond Moulin of San Francisco.

TREE SURGERY IS APPLIED ART

One of the most extensive and interesting pieces of expert art in this county is the job of tree surgery being done on the L. T. Lenox tract on Albright's Hill.

The work is being done by the Outdoor Development Company, Messrs. C. B. Fisher and Freeman Duncan copartners. Mr. Duncan is in charge of a crew of ten men, experts in this particular art, working with what is known as the Davy system. He stated that the company is crowded with work but experts in this particular system are not available or he could work many more.

On this new home site of Mr. Lenox there are many beautiful oak trees that are being operated on and when the job is complete on a tree all fungus growth is removed and unsightly holes and limbs are removed that no new growth will attack the trunk and in time the filled cavity will be completely grown over with the new growth leaving nothing but a scar to show. All trees are reinforced and braced with bolts and cable to insure against breaking in future.

This is one of the new arts of conservation that is doing much to save the beautiful full grown trees of today and Mr. Lenox is deserving of hearty commendation for his enterprise.

BLUE RIBBON FOR BEST HOME IN COUNTY

Mr. and Mrs. Warren Shelley are feeling naturally quite set up over the fact that their home in Ben Lomond was awarded first prize in the entries made in the "Better Homes" contest held last week in Santa Cruz county. Mr. Shelley said that a large delegation made a pilgrimage to see the prize homes after the awards had been made.

A. W. Johnson of Campbell had the contract and was assisted by J. C. Soutar.

Campbell friends who have visited Mr. and Mrs. Shelley in their new home have spoken in terms of highest praise of its livable qualities.

What Is a Kiss

Ben Johnson, the old English poet and dramatist describes it as:

O that joy so soon should waste!

Or so sweet a bliss

As a kiss

Might not forever last!

O sugared, so melting, so soft, so delicious.

The dew that lies on roses

When the morn herself discloses,

Is not so precious,

O, rather than I would it smother

Were I to taste such another,

It should be my wishing,

That I might die with kissing.

Boulder Dam Fight

Senator Hiram W. Johnson is always at his best when he is in the thickest of a great fight.
It takes a real contest like the Boulder dam to bring out his brilliant talents, and Hiram is never so happy as when he is hurling a challenge at some entrenched privilege like the power trust. His speech in the Senate last week in behalf of the Johnson-Swing bill was a masterpiece for eloquence and lucidity. Johnson made it very clear that if there was no electric power to be generated there would be no opposition from the power trust. The power trust is not interested in the irrigation water which is to make fertile the Imperial Valley, and so if the dam was to be only for irrigating purposes as Johnson so aptly points out there would be no fight. Here also are great power possibilities and to build a dam and not utilize them would be, as Johnson calls it, "economic idiocy." It is from the sale of power that the government would be compensated for the cost of this enormous engineering project.

Johnson met the argument of the power trust, which asserted that the Johnson-Swing bill would put Uncle Sam in the power business by calling attention to a provision inserted in the bill at the request of the Secretary of the Interior which gives the government the privilege to lease the power rights to private bidders or if the bids are unsatisfactory then the government can sell the power at the switchboard to the consumers. The bill as it stands is supposed to have the approval of President Coolidge and Herbert Hoover so there can't be anything terribly socialistic about it. The meat of the kernel is the power trust doesn't want Uncle Sam to be in a position to regulate the price of electric power to consumers. The government might make it cheaper than the power trust is getting for its juice nowadays.

They are now betting that Babe Ruth will make 50 homeruns so the baseball season can now be said to be officially opened.

Why not nominate Col. Lindy to run with Herbert Hoover if he goes over the top. Who seconds the motion?

Contract to build the rest of the skyline boulevard has been let by the state highway commission. It will cost close to $700,000 to finish the job but it is dirt cheap. The skyline as a scenic route will be unsurpassed in America or abroad.

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Watson returned Saturday evening from a visit of several weeks with their son Courtland at Tucson, Ariz. They enjoyed a very pleasant visit and delightful weather.

Mr. and Mrs. J. U. Binkerd of Oakland are here at the home of their cousin, Frank Binkerd. Mr. Binkerd had the misfortune to sustain a broken leg, a strained ankle and knee, incurred in a fall from a ladder and is here to recuperate.

Several of Campbell's sportsmen grabbed their fish poles on the run early Tuesday morning and beat it to the wild places. Some returned whistling, but more came in dragging their poles behind them and refused to talk about it. The only limit bag reported to us was caught by Wayne Saunders.

MISS DUNPHY HONORED

Mrs. Emery Posten and Mrs. Blanche Hyatt both now living in San Jose, but former residents of the little Los Gatos road of Campbell were hostesses Saturday afternoon at a miscellaneous shower in honor of Miss Harriet Dunphy.

The score or more of guests were residents of that road who for several years were members of the N. and S. Club to which Miss Dunphy and her parents also belonged. Mrs. Dunphy accompanied her daughter from San Francisco for the occasion.

The lovely array of gifts was presented to the happy young lady on a tea wagon and their examination was one of the pleasant features of the afternoon as were the dainty refreshments served by the hostesses.

Geo. Marsh Writes of Vacation Trip

From here we went to the Methodist church. And in the evening I attended the service at the Congregational church. I had several pleasant and informing visits with the able pastor of this church, Mr. Furnadjeff. Both he and his wife received a large part of their education in America. They are strong and versatile people, and fitted to lead in the work of this large church and also in all the Christian work of the country.

While in Sofia, we had many delightful visits with the missionaries of the city, and got a new vision of the important work done in the kindergarten, the more advanced day school, the weekly Evangelical paper, and in many other directions. One of the places which we found most interesting was the site of the new Sofia schools, on a fine location overlooking the Sofia plateau. This is five miles out of the city, on the slope approaching Mount Vitosh. Mr. King, business manager of the Mission, took us out there, and showed us about the three excellent brick buildings, then nearly ready for the roofs, which are to form the first unit in the new college.

I had several very interesting interviews with students desiring to come to our school, and we enjoyed a most delightful call at the home of the young man who has come as a student this Fall. His father is a retired professor of the University of Sofia, having served there for thirty-seven years. I must not fail to mention the strong, fine young pastor of the Methodist church in Sofia. He had his theological training in England, and his spiritual power, intellectual vigor, social outlook, and deep human sympathy make him a rare leader.

But Samokov, where are located the Schools which are to be transferred to Sofia, to become the Sofia schools, was the chief objective of our pilgrimage. For sixty years this has been the leading station of our mission. It is sixty kilometers from Sofia, and half of this distance is up through a gorge grand and beautiful, that of the river Isker. At one of the most picturesque points, there is an old monastery high up on the mountain side, and almost across from it the ruins of an ancient fortress dating back to the great days of Bulgarian history, before the coming of the Turks five hundred years ago.

When we came out onto the Samokov plateau, the streams were running everywhere, as of old when this was paradise to us as children, the forget-me-nots blooming on their borders; and the mountains rose majestically above the city.

We had a room in a house next to that of our cousin, Mr. and Mrs. Clarke, where we could look out into their lovely garden of Zinnias, double poppies, sweet peas, verbenas, and roses. From our upstairs windows we looked out into a wealth of beautiful trees and through our yard flowed a branch of the mountain stream which runs through the city, its murmur making music night and day.

Wespent a very happy month with our cousins. We also enjoyed very much the company of many other friends, Bulgarian and American, some of them all the year dwellers in this mountain paradise, and others, like ourselves, here for a few weeks of rest. Together we picniced on the steep ridge at the edge of the city, took long walks up the river, crossing its many branches on narrow foot bridges, alluringly perilous; or visited the model creamery halfway up the mountains, with its exquisite view over the peaceful plain.

We were very glad to have the opportunity to get acquainted with President and Mrs. Black, whose warm hearted hospitality added so much to the comfort and pleasure of our stay. President Black's development of the schools in Samokov, one for men and one for women, his great improvement of their buildings and grounds, and his far-seeing plans for the schools as they are to be when transferred to Sofia, made one feel that he is both an unusual executive and a man of spiritual vision, who will mean much to the cause of higher education in Bulgaria.

KIWANIANS TO FETE LADY FRIENDS

The boys comprising the Campbell Kiwanis Club met for their customary Tuesday mid-day meal on May day. They were as usual, served a delicious meal under the supervision of Mrs. Turner. Miss Ruth Townsend and Miss Muriel Crothers were the charming serving maids, and when at the time of serving dessert they came again each bringing a huge individual short cake topped with berries red and large, one could hear a sort of gasp running down the tables as the boys with bulging eyes and watering mouths beheld them bearing down on them.

On account of the serious illness of the genial president—Dr. Merrill—Ed Wiesendanger the vice-president started things going. He brought word to the club that the doctor was somewhat improved and was expected to be up a few minutes, for the first time, in the afternoon.

Louis Shelley was chairman for the day and the ease with which he collected dimes for the most trivial offenses shows how thoroughly he believes in the fund laid aside for charity.

Walter Bachrodt from San Jose was the speaker. His topic "Reorganization of Schools."

He thought the new method of several school districts combining for one large school was the ideal way. Campbell was highly commended for her beautiful, well equipped grammar school with its corps of efficient teachers.

The speaker also told of the new junior high school and State Teachers College. One may here obtain a college education cheaper than any where else in the state.

Next Tuesday night is radio night and each member is expected to bring his lady and have music and dinner from 6:30 to 7:30. "Tac" Cutting will have charge of affairs. No meal will be served at the noon hour.

Steele-Tallman

Miss Violet Steele, who has conducted the destinies of the kindergartens this year surprised her friends by being married Saturday noon at Salinas at the home of the groom's sister, Mrs. Walker.

The "mere man" in the happy event was Mr. Raymond Tallman a member of the faculty of the Gilroy high school.

Mrs. Tallman is a graduate of the State Teachers' College and, although connected with the local school but one year, has proved very popular with both the little folks and the grown ups.

Underground Line

Material arrived this week for the underground telephone conduit to be laid between San Jose and Los Gatos. Later this will be extended through the Santa Cruz mountains via the old Soquel road to Soquel.

The E. C. Merrill trucks have been busy unloading a portion of the creosoted timber that will be used for housing the conduit.

It is understood that this job will pass the million dollar mark and take from six to eight months to complete.

One to Ten Years

Pietro Scianna recently arrested charged with setting fire to the home which he occupied on North First street pleaded guilty before Judge Welch last week and was sentenced to 1 to 10 years at San Quentin.

The owners of the place are having the interior renovated and put in good condition. It is in a desirable residence section of town and it is hoped that some desirable citizens may be located there.

GROSS-CHUBB

Paul Chubb and Vivian Gross both of San Jose were married Sunday evening. The bride was the motif of a linen shower given recently by Mrs. E. L. Gross and of other happy affairs. Mrs. Chubb lived in Campbell at one time and attended school here where she was popular with her school mates who extend best wishes.

Widening the Telephone Horizon

IN the memory of many now living, Alexander Graham Bell predicted that the day would come when we could talk to other countries, even across wide expanses of water.

Bell's vision was made a reality when in 1926 New York and London spoke together in two way conversation. Since then, this service has been opened to the public between any point in the U.S.A. and Great Britain. Mexico has been brought into speaking distance. Important cities of continental Europe have come within our voice horizon.

Even more important, the Bell System in the United States now embraces 18,500,000 telephones—a growth for the past year of more than 750,000.

This is measurable progress in widening America's telephone horizon.

HAWAII LAND

A new book of verse by Harold V. Lucas published in Honolulu where Harold, a former "Y" man of this county is now located is just off the press. The following is one of them:

A blazing island sunset,
A flashing coral strand,
A moon of burnished silver,
A smiling friendly land;
Tall peaks upon whose shoulders
Cloud masses doze at ease,
Green valleys, children playing,
A scene of joy and peace.
A hedge of pink hibiscus,
Another bathed in white
With sweet nocturnal flowers
That blossom just at night.
Steep canyons decked in splendor,
Huge craters, aged, still,
A pali on whose ledges
Two armies fought to kill;
Cane fields in waving beauty,
Rainbows! None can compare!
Strange creeds and forms of worship

Aloha—everywhere!
Blue waters! Brilliant fishes
Dart here and there in play,
Ah! What a privilege to live
Here in Hawaii Nei!

Prune Industry Mass Meeting

An important mass meeting of prune growers and of those interested in the prune industry will be held in the Exposition Auditorium, San Francisco, at 10 o'clock a. m. on Saturday, May 5, 1928.

All those in any way interested in the future of this important industry, an industry which ranks second in importance among all of California's tree fruits, should arrange to be at this meeting at which Burke H. Critchfield, State marketing director, will render a report of the findings of an economic study of the prune industry of California, made recently under his supervision by the bureau of agricultural economics of the United States department of agriculture in conjunction with the State department of agriculture and the University of California.

This most important mass meeting of prune growers which is to be held in Memorial Hall of the Exposition Auditorium on Grove Street, between Larkin and Polk streets, San Francisco, at 10 o'clock a. m., Saturday, May 5, 1928, is open to those interested in the present status and in the future of the prune industry of California. Admission to this prune growers' mass meeting will be free of charge.

During the past several years, prune growers in California have been faced with a problem of meeting rising costs of production with a constantly declining market price for their product. The California prune growers have been in a distinctly unfavorable economic position. It is hoped that the findings of this recent study made by the United States department of agriculture, which will be reported by Mr. Critchfield at this important mass meeting will have been productive of information which will guide the prune industry to better practices and more prosperous times.

The boys' baseball team played Sunnyvale Friday and won with a score of 3 to 2. On Wednesday they played Santa Clara, with the score 9 to 5 in Santa Clara's favor.

The band went over to Santa Clara last Friday to play with the band over there.

Mrs. Barrett had one of the health pictures shown Friday afternoon.

Ten thousand dollars and no place to spend it—a patent shaving set and no reason for a shave. Such is the fix of a California convict now working in a highway camp on the Weaverville lateral. The money is said to have been paid over to the State Prison Board for safe-keeping—to see that the convict doesn't spend it foolishly—and out in the big world machines are turning out his invention. It is said to be a patent brush which will overcome the difficulties of a dull razor blade and enable a man with a stiff beard to get to the office on time in the morning.

P-T A. Program

The program furnished by the grammar school for the members of the P-T. A. was in harmony with Health Week. Twenty little tots from the kindergarten gave a dance and health song accompanied by a drink of milk. The little verse was "Merrily we drink our milk, Drink our milk, To keep us fine and dandy."

Four big glasses every day, A very little candy."

Mrs. Barrett's first aid class gave a demonstration in bandaging and the moving picture was the "Pre-School Child."

The remainder of the program was designed purely for entertainment and included a dance, in colonial costumes, by Miss Grandeman's class and songs, "Kentucky Babe" and "A Song of India," by girls of the 8 A grade.

Mrs. Tallman (nee Violet Steele) was presented with flowers from the P-T. A. in honor of her recent marriage.

Mrs. Saver's room won the attendance prize.

If you want easier baking use the Oven Heat Control

When you placed that roast, pie or cake into the oven yesterday and shut the door, were your baking cares finished? Or did you return and "peep" into the oven and go through a half-hour's mental strain?

The Oven Heat Control on the new Gas Range will take care of all your baking. Just turn the dial to the proper baking temperature. It keeps the oven heat right. For there's nothing so important in baking as the proper oven temperature.

That is why meats, pies, cakes and even a whole meal are more deliciously cooked in the new Gas Range equipped with the Oven Heat Control.

Now is an opportune time to get a new Gas Range equipped with the Oven Heat Control.
